

Make Them to It You.

When a radical asks you to vote for Grant and Colfax, make him tell you how he will derive from such a course.

Make him tell you why it is that in times of peace, the party which he asks you to support, has a standing army that costs the taxpayers of this country one hundred and fifty millions of dollars each year?

Make him tell you what has become of millions upon millions of dollars that has been paid into the public treasury since the introduction of his party into power—that there is no account of how it was spent?

Make him tell you why it is that with all the taxes and tariffs that are wrung from the people annually, the public debt is still increasing at the rate of two millions of dollars per month.

Make him tell you why his party makes negro voters in all the States of the South, and then denies being in favor of negro suffrage, here in the North.

Make him tell you what justice there is in the radical doctrine of taxation, which exempts the rich from all taxes and places them upon the shoulders of the poor men.

Make him tell you how it is that three years after the war has ceased, that the Union for which we were told it was waged, is farther from being restored than it was at the beginning.

Make him tell you why the bloated bondholders who robbed the government and invested the money he stole in tax exempted bonds should receive gold for his interest, while you are compelled to take greenbacks for your money.

Make him tell you why the laboring men at the North should toil and sweat, day after day, to feed a lot of lazy negroes and fatten a fanatical carpet-bag pack Bureau Officers who yearly take from the public treasury millions of dollars.

Make him tell you what good will arise from voting for Grant, how much it will lessen your taxes—lower the price of the necessities of life, and how soon it will restore the Union and make our Government a white man's Government by white men for the benefit of white men.

The Hero of Gettysburg.

As Dan Sickles is to be one of the principal candidates in an exhibition of the great struggle on the 8th of October, that is to cost fifty thousand dollars, the following from the Detroit Free Press will not be out of interest.

"The ludicrous effort of the Radicals to make something out of Dan Sickles, by calling him the hero of Gettysburg, will gain exactly the opposite result from General Meade to the Secretary of War, immediately after the battle of Gettysburg, viz:

"If ever Sickles is allowed another command in the Army of the Potomac, I beg to be relieved of my charge of the army."

Things to be Remembered.

Remember—The Radicals have had full control of the Government for eight years.

Remember—They could pass, and have done it, every act they pleased over the veto of the executive.

Remember—They were pledged to the preservation of the Union, but kept that States out of it.

Remember—They in fact dissolved it in time of Peace.

Remember—They abolished the laws, they promised economy, and collected in one year of peace, more money than all that the Government expended for eighty years, when conducted by men who were honest.

"The first duty of a democratic government should be to vindicate American honor in the matter of the imprisonment as felons of American citizens in England and Ireland, on suspicion and without proof. The prisoners should be demanded at the cannon's mouth, with proper apologies and a sufficient indemnity for the outrages." Gen. F. P. Blair.

"Four years more of the rule of such men as are now dominating Congress, will leave us little of morality and republicanism worth preserving."—S. P. Chase.

UNION

BUSINESS COLLEGE
CLEVELAND OHIO.

FELTON & BIGELOW, PROPRIETORS.

SUCCESSORS TO BYANT, STRATTON & FELTON.

This Institution is the Pioneer College of the International BUSINESS COLLEGE Association, whose schools are located in all the leading cities of the United States and Canada, and are the most popular and practical of the kind on the Continent. It is centrally located, in the choicest business section of the city, and occupies expensive, elegant, and commodious— in all respects well appointed, no expense having been spared to secure the greatest convenience and comfort to the student. The course of study is full and complete, embracing all kinds of business, and is made as practical as the business of the outside world, by the handling of money, checks, drafts, business papers generally, and the buying and selling of the various classes of merchandise in connection with each transaction.

The teachers are recognized as able and efficient, every way meriting the reputation they have won for themselves in the field of Education to which they have devoted their talents and the best years of their lives. To their superior management, to the efficiency and popularity of its instruction, to the thoroughness of its course of study, to its location, to its advantages, to the Union Business College owes its present, enviable position and reputation in the business world, and the institutions of the country.

The SPENCERIAN INSTITUTE OF PENMANSHIP OF GENEVA, Has been moved to Cleveland, and connected with the UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE.

The Principal of this National Institute, Platt R. Spencer, one of the authors of the celebrated Spencerian System of Writing, and the acknowledged Champion of the Pen in the United States, will have charge of the Writing Department of the Union Business College. By this change the advantages of acquiring a business hand writing or mastering the Art of Writing in its highest degree, are secured, and where else to be found. Mr. Spencer has taught in many of the leading Colleges and Public Schools of the Continent, and every where has secured around him the largest classes of the finest talent, and gained a very enviable reputation as instructor of this most useful Art.

Scholarships issued at this Institution are good throughout the Association. Young men readily see and appreciate the Association of Colleges located in business centers, and single isolated schools in country towns. If you are desirous to get the best education, you must go where business is transacted.
